

American Water Charitable Foundation and American Water Military Services Group Partner with American Red Cross

Foundation donates $15,000 to support military and veteran families

CAMDEN, N.J. – DECEMBER 20, 2023 – The American Water Charitable Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization established by American Water (NYSE: AWK), the largest regulated water and wastewater utility company in the U.S., and American Water’s Military Services Group, announced today that the Foundation awarded a $15,000 State Strategic Impact grant to the American Red Cross, Service to the Armed Forces Giving Program, in support of military members, veterans and families as they prepare for and respond to the challenges of military service.

“The American Water Charitable Foundation is proud to partner with the American Red Cross, supporting their mission and well-being of our nation’s heroes,” said Carrie Williams, President, American Water Charitable Foundation. “This grant will provide essential services and support to military personnel during and after their careers.”

The American Red Cross supports our heroes through countless challenges throughout their military journey and beyond. It is also the only organization congressionally chartered to keep military members and their families connected during personal emergencies.

“Support from partners like American Water Charitable Foundation and American Water Military Services Group enables the Red Cross to quickly assist military members and their families, delivering comfort and hope to people in times of need,” said Rosie Taravella, CEO of the American Red Cross New Jersey Region. “We deeply appreciate this generous donation as we work together to provide a full spectrum of support services for our military community and veterans every day.”

The State Strategic Impact grant is part of the 2023 Keep Communities Flowing Grant Program, focusing on three pillars of giving: Water, People and Communities. State Strategic Impact grants support high-impact projects and initiatives throughout American Water’s national footprint.

“American Water’s Military Services Group is delighted to collaborate with the American Water Charitable Foundation in supporting our veteran and military community by supporting the American Red Cross Service to the Armed Forces,” said Sean Wheatley, President, American Water Military Services Group. “This partnership reinforces our daily mission to provide safe and reliable water and wastewater services to service members and their families on 18 military installations across the U.S.”
