

Iowa American Water Provides Financial Assistance for Customers

DAVENPORT, IA – OCTOBER 29, 2024 – Iowa American Water offers customers several financial assistance options to help pay their bills. Sometimes household finances are stretched thin, and it can be hard to get back on track once an account falls behind.

Below is a listing of Iowa American Water's financial assistance programs that can help customers pay their bills and keep life flowing:

- H2O Help to Others Program: Help to Others is an emergency assistance program created by Iowa American Water and Community Action of Eastern Iowa. The program provides supplemental funding to Iowa American Water customers who would otherwise have trouble paying their bills. H2O Help to Others is supported by contributions from Iowa American Water along with customers' voluntary donations. Trained caseworkers with Community Action of Eastern Iowa determine the needs of families and individuals, who must be Iowa American Water customers. Customers can contact Community Action of Eastern Iowa at (563) 243-5220 in Clinton or (563) 324-3236 in the Iowa Quad Cities area for more information or to check their eligibility.
- Payment Arrangements: If customers are unable to pay their bill by the due date, they can visit MyWater to review payment plan options or contact Iowa American Water's customer service center at 866-641-2108 before the due date to work with them to determine payment arrangements that may be available.
- Budget Billing: A free service that is available to eligible residential customers that provides fixed monthly payments over a period of 12 months, based on the customer's anticipated annual billing. The program makes managing your cash flow easier by providing predictable monthly payments and avoiding seasonal spikes that may be difficult to pay when not planned for in advance.

For more information about these programs, customers can contact us at 866-641-2108 or visit our website.
