American Water Named Champion of Board Diversity by The Forum of Executive Women for the Eighth Consecutive Year

Honored as Gold Champion; Board is 60 percent female

CAMDEN, N.J. – NOVEMBER 12, 2024 – American Water (NYSE: AWK), the largest regulated water and wastewater utility company in the U.S., announced today its designation as a Champion of Board Diversity by The Forum of Executive Women for the eighth consecutive year. The Forum of Executive Women, the Philadelphia region's premier network of influential women, honors the top public companies with 30 percent or more women on their respective boards, annually.

American Water was recognized as one of 46 companies in Greater Philadelphia that are paving the way for gender equity and one of three companies designated as a Gold Champion, with 50 percent or more women on their respective boards.

The Champions were celebrated on Tuesday, November 12 at The Forum's Leadership Breakfast at the Loews Philadelphia Hotel. Additionally, in collaboration with PwC US, The Forum unveiled the Women in Leadership 2024 Report, an in-depth examination of how companies in the region support the advancement of women leaders in corporate boardrooms and executive suites.
