Pennsylvania American Water Plans Customer Assistance Information Session for Foster Township

Wastewater customers can learn more about company assistance programs

SCRANTON, Pa. (Feb. 6, 2025) – Pennsylvania American Water recently announced an information session for its customers in Foster Township on H2O Help to Others, the company's customer assistance program. The session is scheduled for Thursday, Feb. 13, 2025, at 11 a.m. in the Foster Township Municipal Building meeting room.

The H2O Help to Others Program has been assisting qualified customers facing financial hardships for more than 30 years. It offers grants, monthly bill discounts, and arrearage forgiveness for customers at or below 250% of the Federal Poverty Income Guidelines (FPIG).

Customers who are unable to attend the session can find more information on the Pennsylvania American Water website or by contacting Dollar Energy, the program administrator, at 888-282-6816.
