

Missouri American Water Proudly Recognizes American Water Charitable Foundation 2026 Water and Environment Grantees

Recipients include nine nonprofit organizations across Missouri

ST. LOUIS, April 28, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- The American Water Charitable Foundation, a philanthropic nonprofit organization established by American Water (NYSE: AWK), the largest regulated water and wastewater utility company in the U.S., and Missouri American water, today announce that nine organizations were awarded a Foundation 2026 Water and Environment grant totaling $70,000, supporting communities served throughout Missouri.

"The grant from the American Water Charitable Foundation enables The George Washington Carver Youth Urban Farm to empower youth as environmental stewards and community leaders," said Ron Moore with the St. Louis Metro Gateway National Society of Black Engineers Jr. "By focusing on sustainable agriculture, ecological education, and hands-on urban farming—including beekeeping for honey—we nurture the land, promote access to nutritious foods, and strengthen the local community."

The Water and Environment grant is part of the American Water Charitable Foundation's Keep Communities Flowing Grant Program, focusing on three pillars of giving: Water, People and Communities.

"Environmental sustainability strengthens water quality by advancing practices that protect watersheds and minimize pollution," said Rich Svindland, President of Missouri American Water. "Through the American Water Charitable Foundation, these initiatives reaffirm our commitment to safeguarding vital water resources and advancing education for our customers and for future generations."

Below is a list of grantees throughout Missouri.

- A Red Circle
- Black Girls Do STEM
- Forest ReLeaf of Missouri
- Lincoln University Foundation Inc.
- Missouri Coalition for the Environment Foundation
- Missouri Gateway Green Building Council
- Missouri River Relief, Inc.
- St. Louis Metro Gateway NSBE Jr
- Wellston Loop Community Development Corporation

"The American Water Charitable Foundation is delighted to support eligible nonprofit organizations making a meaningful impact across Missouri," said Carrie Williams, President, American Water Charitable Foundation. "Funding for Water and Environment grants supports projects focused on clean water, conservation, environmental education, climate variability, and water-based recreation."
