Get Help Paying Your Utility Bills at June 18 Canonsburg Resource Fair

Pennsylvania American Water connects Washington County customers with programs offering discounts, grants and bill assistance

MCMURRAY, Pa. (June 10, 2026) – Pennsylvania American Water is hosting a Utility Assistance and Resource Fair on Thursday, June 18, from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. at the Canonsburg Senior Center, located at 30 East Pike Street in Canonsburg.

The event is designed to support local customers by providing a one-stop opportunity to learn about and enroll in programs that can help reduce utility bills. More than 12,000 Pennsylvania American Water customers in Washington County may be eligible for monthly bill discounts, annual grants and assistance with past-due balances.

At this event, customers can meet directly with community organizations, utilities and local leaders to ask questions and enroll in available programs. Attendees are encouraged to bring income documentation and a recent utility bill. Participating partners include Pennsylvania American Water, Dollar Energy Fund, Columbia Gas of Pennsylvania, The Salvation Army and Freedom Transit, as well as local elected officials, including State Senator Camera Bartolotta, State Representative Jason Ortitay, and Washington County Commissioner Electra Janis.

Pennsylvania American Water provides a variety of customer assistance programs through its H2O Help to Others Program™, which offers income-eligible customers grants, bill discounts and support for past-due balances. The company also provides budget billing, payment arrangements and other customer support services.

Customers at or below 250% of the Federal Poverty Income Guidelines qualify for assistance through the H2O Help to Others Program. Additional information is available at pennsylvaniaamwater.com/H2O, by attending this or other local assistance events or by contacting Dollar Energy Fund, the program administrator, at 888-282-6816.
